First-Timers Information Sheet

Thank you for your interest in the Beltway BBQ Showdown! The information provided below will make your first competition a success. The Kansas City Barbeque Society (KCBS) website is a great resource. Here are a few of the most common facts:

Rules and regulations from the Kansas City Barbeque Society
(Additional information specific to the Beltway BBQ Showdown is in RED)

1. Each team shall consist of a chief cook (Pit Master) and as many assistants as chief deem necessary.
2. Each team is assigned a cooking space. Pits, cookers, props, trailers, motor homes, vehicles, tents, shall not exceed the boundaries of team’s assigned cooking space. (Showdown space is 20 x 20, larger space is available for an extra fee)
3. Teams shall provide all needed equipment, supplies and electricity, except as arranged for in advance. (Showdown registration fee includes access to water and 20-amp electric, bring extension cords and hoses)
4. Cook fires shall be of wood, wood pellets, or charcoal.
5. All competition meats shall be inspected by the Official Meat Inspector during the times established by the contest organizer. (Showdown meat inspections are performed soon after check in. DON’T do anything with your meat until inspected. You will receive a ribbon to display at your cook site after inspection)
6. All meat must be purchased fresh and sealed. Do not apply No rubs, marinating, sauce, etc., can be applied until inspection is completed at the competition check in.
7. The four KCBS Meat Categories:
   a. Chicken – Chicken includes Cornish Game Hen and Kosher Chicken.
   b. Pork Ribs – Ribs shall include the bone. Country style ribs are prohibited.
   c. Pork – Pork is defined as Boston Butt, Boston Roast, Picnic and/or Whole Shoulder, weighing a minimum of 4 lbs.
   d. Beef Brisket – May be whole brisket, flat or point. Corned beef is not allowed.
